

ALERT

DCSA Announces Daniel Lecce as Deputy Director

January 10, 2022

On January 3, 2022, the Defense Counterintelligence and Security Agency (DCSA) announced the selection of Daniel J. Lecce as Deputy Director effective January 18, 2022. The DCSA is tasked with overseeing defense contractor facilities and is responsible for personnel vetting and technology protection. As Deputy Director, Lecce will “assist in shaping policies, managing resources, and leading operational activities to accomplish the Agency’s mission.”

Lecce is a retired Marine Corps Major General who most recently served as a staff judge advocate and senior legal advisor to the Commandant of the Marine Corps. He was selected through a process that considered nominations from across the intelligence community, the Department of Defense, and the defense industrial base.

For the latest updates or any questions on DCSA developments, please contact one of the authors listed on this alert.

View Wiley's latest DCSA and Foreign Ownership, Control, or Influence (FOCI) Handbook here.

Authors

Daniel B. Pickard
Partner
202.719.7285
dpickard@wiley.law
Nicole C. Hager
Associate
202.719.4273
nhager@wiley.law

Practice Areas

Foreign Ownership, Control or Influence (FOCI)
National Security