

Adam M. Teslik

Of Counsel

 202.719.3483

 ateslik@wiley.law

Adam represents clients in a variety of international trade matters, including antidumping and countervailing duty proceedings before the U.S. Department of Commerce (DOC) and U.S. International Trade Commission (USITC), appeals before the U.S. Court of International Trade (CIT) and the Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit (CAFC), binational panel reviews under the North American Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA), and WTO litigation in cooperation with the Office of the United States Trade Representative (USTR). Adam has also represented clients in the context of Section 301 investigations before USTR and Section 232 investigations before DOC. Adam's practice includes assisting clients in advancing trade policy priorities, especially in the context of U.S.-China economic relations and U.S. trade agreements.

Representative Matters

- Represents domestic producers of steel mill and downstream products, including steel pipe and tube and fabricated structural steel, in antidumping and countervailing duty proceedings before the DOC and USITC.
- Represents domestic producers of steel mill and downstream products, including steel pipe and tube and fabricated structural steel, in appellate matters before the CIT, CAFC, and NAFTA binational panels.
- Represents domestic producers with respect to Section 232 national security measures on imports of steel.
- Represented U.S. aluminum producers in preparing WTO challenge of Chinese subsidies to the primary aluminum industry.

Practice Areas

International Trade

Credentials

Education

LL.M., Peking University Law School

J.D., cum laude, American University
Washington College of Law

B.A., Washington University in St. Louis

Bar and Court Memberships

District of Columbia Bar

New York Bar

U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit

U.S. Court of International Trade

Languages

Mandarin

- Represented domestic industries advocating for China's continued treatment as a non-market economy in antidumping investigations, under both U.S. law and China's WTO Protocol of Accession.
- Represented U.S. technology company in USTR's Section 301 investigation regarding China's intellectual property policies.
- Advised domestic steel producers regarding domestic production requirements under Buy America rules and the Buy American Act.
- Represented pro bono clients in social security disability appeals.

Professional Experience

- Intern, Office of the U.S. Trade Representative (USTR), Office of China Affairs (2010-2011)
- Research Fellow, U.S.-China Economic and Security Review Commission (USCC) (2009)
- Intern, Congressional-Executive Commission on China (CECC) (2008)

Recognitions

- Named one of DC's "Rising Stars" for International by Super Lawyers magazine (2018-2020, 2022)