

Adrienne J. Kosak

Special Counsel

 202.719.7319

 akosak@wiley.law

Adrienne serves as special counsel to Wiley. She represents clients in a variety of intellectual property matters, with a particular focus on trademark enforcement and management. Adrienne has extensive experience in trademark and patent litigation, including claims under the Anticybersquatting Consumer Protection Act and the Hatch-Waxman Act.

Representative Matters

- Assists clients with trademark portfolio management including clearance, prosecution, maintenance, and counseling.
- Represents clients in all phases of intellectual property litigation, from pre-suit investigation through appeal.
- Works with clients to implement effective intellectual property management and enforcement strategies.
- Assists clients in recovering stolen domain names and curtailing cybersquatting.
- Member of numerous trial teams, including successful defenses of a major wireless communications company in a multi-million dollar patent infringement lawsuit and generic pharmaceutical company against claims of patent infringement in Hatch-Waxman litigation.
- Successfully appealed multiple denials of a social security disability claims on behalf of pro bono clients.

Professional Experience

Practice Areas

Cybersquatting & Internet IP
Intellectual Property
Litigation

Credentials

Education

J.D., William & Mary Law School

B.S., magna cum laude, The Ohio State University; Phi Beta Kappa

Law Journals

Executive Articles Editor, William and Mary Bill of Rights Journal

Clerkships

Law Clerk for the Honorable Mary Ellen Coster Williams, U.S. Court of Federal Claims (2014-2015)

Bar and Court Memberships

District of Columbia Bar

North Carolina Bar

Virginia Bar

U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal and Ninth Circuits

U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Texas and Eastern District of Virginia

U.S. Court of Federal Claims

- Legal Intern, Office of the Federal Public Defender (2007)

Recognitions

- Named one of DC's "Rising Stars" for Intellectual Property Litigation by Super Lawyers magazine (2013-2014, 2018-2020, 2022)