 adefontenay@wiley.law

Anne de Fontenay joined Wiley in 2016 as Chief Financial Officer and has more than 20 years of experience in all areas of finance and accounting in the legal industry.

As Wiley's CFO, Anne is responsible for leading the firm's strategy in the areas of finance, profitability, and overall business operations. She directs a team of 28 professionals across all finance, accounting, and risk management functions, including financial planning and analysis, budgeting, reporting, pricing, compensation, tax, billing and collections, conflicts, and real estate. Anne works closely with firm's managing partner and executive committee to evaluate, approve, and implement major initiatives that are designed to position the firm for financial and operational success.

Anne's strength lies in building high-performance teams. During her tenure at Wiley, she restructured the Accounting department, designed and rolled out numerous initiatives that streamlined operational procedures, significantly reduced inefficiencies, and improved the firm's profitability.
