

Derek McCleskey

Operations Chief

 202.719.4967

 dmccleskey@wiley.law

Derek McCleskey is an experienced professional who brings over 25 years of operations experience to his role as Operations Chief at Wiley. Derek is responsible for the overall management of the firm's facilities and services and ensuring an efficient and cost-effective operation. In his role at Wiley, Derek oversees the day-to-day functions of the Operations, Office Services, Facilities, Conference Services, and Records departments. He serves as a liaison with firm leadership, property management, and real estate representatives and plays an integral role in the firm's management of tenant, real estate, and security issues.

Credentials

Education

B.A., Texas A&M University