Wiley Rein Government Contracts Boot Camp Series: "Recent Developments in Subcontracting" Webinar

Online Webinar
September 26, 2012

This Boot Camp will cover new FAR and DFARS flowdown clauses, including commercial item subcontracts, executive compensation, data rights, and personal conflicts of interest requirements; recent efforts by OFCCP to boost affirmative action hires among contractors and the implications these policy changes have for a prime contractor's determination of whether an agreement constitutes a "subcontract" under relevant regulations; and changes to small business subcontracting requirements resulting from the Small Business Jobs Act and corresponding updates to the FAR.
