Nova Daly Featured on Panel and Radio Broadcast Discussing Cybersecurity Incentives

Federal News Radio

October 26, 2011

Public Policy consultant Nova Daly, speaking as part of a Booz Allen Hamilton expert voices panel on cybersecurity, was featured on a recent Federal News Radio broadcast. The panel, titled "The Cybersecurity Dilemma: Incentives to Drive Change Rather than Reactive Response," featured Mr. Daly and other industry experts discussing possible incentives to encourage corporate investment in cybersecurity protection measures. Such incentives could include correlating proactive cybersecurity measures with favorable company performance and insurance coverage for cyber weaknesses.
