

IAPP Privacy Academy

---

September 2012

This fall, privacy experts will head to Silicon Valley for the Academy 2012 to bring you the latest on cloud computing, financial services, global and legal developments, governance and accountability, health care, information security, marketing, mobile and location-based services, online privacy and so much more.

Join the privacy community for practical instruction, critical thinking and meaningful discussions.

Register here.