

Wiley Rein & Fielding Rated Top Telecommunications Lobbyists

June 17, 2004

Washington, DC-The Hill, a newspaper covering Congress and its members, has rated Wiley Rein & Fielding's Richard E. Wiley, Susan Buck, Mimi Dawson and Jim Slattery as top telecommunications lobbyists. The rating is based on conversations with the major players on K Street, congressional staffers and other Washington insiders.

Of the group the paper said, "Nearly every telecom lobbyist in town recognized former Federal Communications Commission (FCC) Chairman Richard Wiley and his group as the top outside experts on telecommunications policy. His legislative team includes former FCC Commissioner and Senate Commerce Committee aide Dawson, one-time Sprint lobbyist Buck, and former Rep. Slattery (D-Kan.), a 12-year member of the House Energy and Commerce Committee."
